MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Families,

February is a month full of kindness, love, caring and sharing. What it means to be a good friend is a lesson we learn all year! We have completed are in-house registration and will begin calling from our waitlist this week. Information about Summer Camp registration will be coming out at the end of the month. Due to staffing being difficult during the summer, please remember Summer Camp is only available for children that are returning or aging out of Advent.

Thank you for choosing to send your child to Advent, it is a joy to watch your children grow!

Love,

Katie Clark

CHAPEL

In Chapel we have learned about Jesus' life as a boy and as an adult. Who was Jesus? He was a healer, a teacher, a friend, a King and most importantly the Son of God. During the month of February, we will hear about the miracles that Jesus performed! I have found a great musical artist called Slugs & Bugs; he has fun, wonderful music that I use in Chapel. You should look it up!

CHURCH NEWS

Pancake Supper: Join your Advent family and bring a friend to our Shrove Tuesday pancake supper, February 13, 6-8 pm.

Bring-a-friend Sunday: In celebration of Advent's 65th anniversary, Advent will have an especially festive Sunday on March 3. (Yes, it will be Lent, but all Sundays are Feasts of Our Lord.) Invite everyone you know for Godly Play & Adult Forum, an "annotated" Eucharist at 10:30, and an enhanced coffee hour with a display of some of our liturgical treasures and a game of "stump the clergy."

Lenten Study: This year we're studying the phenomenon of "Seculosity," the tendency to seek righteousness, or "enough-ness," by embracing everything but the grace of God. Join us Wednesday nights in Lent (except Ash Wednesday) for a potluck dinner and a provocative, wide-ranging conversation. We'll start with a discussion of the introduction and Chapter 1, so buy your copy of the book now.

Also, Advent Church will observe Ash Wednesday with services at noon in the chapel and 6 pm in the church.
